Description

An interesting oil-on-canvas seascape, dating from the 18th century and likely from the Dutch school. A highly decorative work, with an evocative composition and an atmosphere characteristic of maritime painting of the period. A piece with more than two centuries of history, ideal for collectors, lovers of old paintings, or to add character and elegance to an interior. It shows signs of wear and age. Some areas require restoration, as can be seen in the photographs. With frame: 117 cm × 90.5 cm Without frame: 104 cm × 77 cm
