

Large Wrought-iron Lock With Key, Ca. 17th-18th Century

260 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 26cm

Width : 12cm

Description

A beautiful, large master lock or front door lock made of handcrafted wrought iron, complete with its original iron key. An authentic piece of folk art and artistic ironwork. Period: 17th-18th century (Louis XIV / Regency style) Material: Hand-forged wrought iron Features: Scalloped faceplate with Baroque-style cutouts / scrollwork cutouts Visible complex mechanism with a pivoting keyhole cover engraved with floral scrolls Original coil spring and half-turn mechanism Wrought-iron key with heart-shaped ring and cut-out bit Condition: Beautiful original patina with signs of wear and stabilized surface rust. Complete and functional mechanism. Ideal for: Lock collectors

Dealer

Eleousa gallery

Antiquités

Mobile : 0749880239

4 place de la croix

Ouroux-sur-Saône 71370