Description

Elegant and richly decorated, this French Empire-style half-moon console table stands out for its harmonious proportions and the refined combination of finely chiseled gilded bronze and carved gilded woodwork. The console features the characteristic semicircular shape, creating an elegant architectural silhouette that is ideal for an entryway, living room, or reception area. The front supports are crowned with imposing carved wooden caryatid heads, meticulously gilded and designed in the classical style characteristic of the Empire style. These sculptural elements lend the console a bold and sophisticated presence. The design is enhanced by numerous gilded bronze accents, finely chiseled and gilded, offering a luxurious contrast to the console's main structure. The legs, also in gilded bronze, underscore the
