Description

An 18th-century walnut drop-front chest, made in Genoa, featuring elegant maple and rosewood inlays. The front has a scalloped design with five drawers, the two smaller upper drawers of which are placed side by side and equipped with practical side pulls. The upper drop-down door reveals a refined interior compartment consisting of seven drawers, four open compartments, and a central door with a mirror. The ornate apron-style legs lend the piece additional grace and stability. Carefully restored, this chest retains the charm of a bygone era, making it an authentic antique. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
