Description

A stunning antique cast-iron mantelpiece dating from 1751. This exceptional piece features a beautiful patina that attests to its authenticity and history. It is richly adorned with classic motifs of the era, notably elegant fleurs-de-lis and two decorative columns. It is an ideal historical decorative piece to add a touch of rustic elegance and character to a traditional fireplace. In excellent overall condition for its age, with reliefs still very sharp--see photos. It requires several people to carry it as it is very heavy. From a magnificent bourgeois mansion in Burgundy.
