Description

19th century French gold mounted opaline glass scent bottle, the turquoise glass body of ovoid form, the hinged cover relief decorated and engraved with scrolling foliage, fleur-de-lys, and set with matching cabochon turquoise stones, centred with an oval cabochon pink stone, enclosing glass inner stopper. Symbolism Turquoise symbolises a variety of concepts, including protection, communication, emotional balance, wisdom, and vitality. Historically, it was considered a powerful protective amulet in many cultures and was used in weapons and shields. Today, it is often linked to communication and creativity, and its color is associated with tranquility and renewal.
