Description

This 19th-century Baroque sideboard in walnut, crafted from antique wood, stands out for its classic lines and the use of high-quality materials typical of the period. The front features a pair of paneled doors, characterized by a simple and elegant design, although the lock is missing. The cantilevered legs provide stability and a traditional touch to the piece, making it suitable for a variety of home settings. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
