Description

Oval bar rings in silver bronze and clear glass
Maison Baguès around 1960 1970
Superb service to bar (or trolley) from the neoclassical period (circa 1960-1970), attributable to the prestigious Maison Baguès. Refined and elegant, its structure is entirely made of silver bronze with tubular studs topped by the famous ball finishes, emblematic of Baguès' quality workmanship
Two removable oval trays made of clear, thick glass. A bottle holder with three integrated slots on the lower tray. Two large spoked wheels with rubber straps at the front and two small swivel wheels at the rear, ensuring perfect mobility. A handgrip of curved and worked push. Exceptional state as new. Silver bronze retains all its original luster, without dilvering or oxidation. The glasses are in perfect condition, beautifully thick and without
