Description

A late 19th-century walnut display cabinet from Italy, featuring an elegant design with a pair of glass doors and a drawer below. The projecting side posts are turned and carved columns, giving the piece an air of solidity and refinement. The glass sides allow a full view of the objects displayed on four interior shelves. The cornice is adorned with a central coat of arms bearing the letters "CP" and is complemented by decorative side finials. The plinth-style legs ensure stability and perfectly complement the piece's aesthetic, making it a piece of great historical and artistic value. Product Condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
