Description

A 20th-century Dutch-style drop-front cabinet, crafted from walnut and embellished with elegant floral and bird inlays made from precious woods. The contoured front features an upper flap door that conceals a storage unit consisting of six drawers, open compartments, and a central door, offering functional and organized storage space. Beneath the top, a pair of pull-out shelves adds further practicality, while the three drawers below--the first of which is smaller--complete the structure. The animal-shaped feet lend personality and stability to the piece, reflecting the attention to detail typical of the style. Perfect for spaces that call for a touch of classic elegance. Product Condition: Due to its age and wear, this piece requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as
