

Pair Of Petit Point Slippers For A Men's Smoking Room--second Empire, France

530 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Tapestry

Description

Circa 1860-1880 France A delightful pair of men's slippers embroidered in fine wool in a bold Second Empire floral motif! Cream-colored cotton and leather lining; soles and heel pads in fawn leather, finely studded. Piping made of applied brown curly velvet ribbon (minor losses at the heels). A few missing wool stitches and slight crushing at the heel. Period patina but structurally sound. Good overall condition. Dimensions: equivalent to men's size 39-40, suitable for a very slender foot. Length 27 cm, instep 16 cm.

Dealer

Villa Rosemaine

costumes et textiles anciens

Tel : 06 32 88 38 10

436 route de Plaisance

Toulon 83200