Description

Pair of lacquered and gilded wooden angels. Period: 18th century, Venetian Baroque. Material: Carved wood, lacquered ivory white with traces of gilding. Description: A rare and striking pair of angels kneeling in adoration, with large, outstretched wings finely carved to resemble feathers. Gentle, oval faces with sculpted wavy hair; soft, natural drapery that follows the kneeling posture atop a cloud with scrollwork. Hands crossed over the chest in a prayerful gesture, with one angel's hand outstretched. Original ivory-colored lacquer with a beautiful patina of age and traces of gilding still visible on the collar. A striking sculpture with a strong decorative impact, typical of an altar, ideal for an entryway, library, or private chapel. Dimensions: Height: 80 cm Width: 35
