Description

Vase made using the cloisonné technique (enamel inlay on a copper vessel). The neck is decorated with a motif depicting a sinuous mythical dragon (Ryu), turquoise-green in color with a white belly, against a honey-brown enamel background sprinkled with gold and copper-colored glitter. The body is covered with rich plant and zoomorphic ornamentation (notably motifs of butterflies, birds, and flowers on a turquoise and yellow background). The lower part of the body is adorned with dense, sinuous plant motifs (arabesques). Japan, Meiji era (1868-1912). Height 31.5 cm, diameter 15 cm. Good condition, with minor damage to the rim visible in the photo. Free shipping within the European Union! I ship packages via insured mail (DPD or DHL). All items are packed very carefully.
