Description

Late 18th-century mahogany executive secretary desk. It rests on two spindle-shaped legs at the front, ending in brass feet, and two tapered legs at the back. It features a drawer in the upper section, two doors in the lower section, and a drop-down panel lined with black leather that reveals a display cabinet. The compartment consists of 8 drawers and a hidden compartment. The piece is constructed of oak and veneered in mahogany, with brass molding framing the entire piece. Buffed varnish finish.
