Description

Art Nouveau-style art glass vase with enameled and gilded thistle motifs, In the style of late 19th- or early 20th-century designs, reminiscent of French glasswork from that era (such as Émile Gallé or Ernest-Baptiste Lévêillé). Hand-blown glass vase with a bulbous body and flared neck. Rich decoration of thistles enhanced with gold in the form of polychrome relief inclusions within the body of the glass. The absolute elegance of an era. Unsigned but attributed to Montjoy.
