Description

An elegant oval-shaped carved wood side table, dating from the late 19th century and crafted in the Louis XVI style. The oval tabletop is adorned with a beautiful white marble slab veined with gray and red, framed by wooden molding. The base consists of four tapered and slightly curved legs, decorated with plant motifs and ending in small carved feet. They are joined by an elegant X-shaped crossbar, centered with a circular motif. The piece as a whole offers a beautiful harmony of proportions and refined decoration, particularly representative of Louis XVI-style furniture produced in the late 19th century. An elegant and decorative piece, ideal as a small table, side table, or display table in a classic or eclectic interior. Dimensions: Height 78 cm ×

Width 87 cm × Depth 61 cm
