Description

Pair of decorative walnut elements, carved as a matching pair and depicting two crowned eagles facing each other. From a wood paneling design, a piece of furniture's pediment, or Second Empire interior architecture. Each eagle is carved in high relief with intricate detailing that highlights the plumage, talons, crown, and floral motifs on sides. The facing composition and power of the modeling are remarkable. The reverse is flat, for mounting on a support, and shows traces of entirely hand-crafted work. Walnut displays a beautiful, warm patina. Dimensions: 25 × 22 × 9 cm each. Good condition, formerly varnished; the previous owner cleaned and polished them.
