Description

"Romantic Landscape with Cliffs and Travelers"
-- Drawing attributed to Jacob Philipp Hackert (1737-1807). This classical composition is reminiscent of the Romantic masters who depicted travelers against backdrops of ruins or spectacular natural cliffs. The landscape is executed with masterful precision using pen, ink, sepia, and wash. The work comes from a private European collection and can be attributed to the artistic output of Jacob Philipp Hackert. The drawing possesses high artistic and historical value, beautifully illustrating the aesthetics of late 18th-century landscape art. The paper bears a crown-shaped watermark.
