Description

A significant white crackled earthenware sculpture depicting two greyhounds in full flight, modeled after a design by Charles Lemanceau (1905-1980). A beautiful Art Deco composition depicting the two greyhounds in particularly dynamic motion, leaping over a stylized rocky landscape. The animals' slender, geometric lines are characteristic of Charles Lemanceau's animal sculptures from the Art Deco period. Signed "LEMANCEAU" in intaglio on the base. French work, circa 1930-1940.
