Antique procession parasol made of hand-painted canvas from China or Japan A handcrafted piece from Asia, likely from the first half of the 20th century, featuring a traditional frame and a matching painted wooden pole, topped with a beautiful turned finial. Exterior design: Hand-painted sky-blue canvas featuring delicate red roses with stems and small flowers along the edge. Interior lining: Bright yellow canvas that casts a beautiful, warm glow when the umbrella is open. Scalloped edges adorned with braiding and magnificent long yellow fringes. Dimensions: Large open diameter of 120 cm. Beautiful original vintage condition with a superb patina of age. Shows authentic signs of wear that reflect its history--small wear holes on the yellow inner lining, visible in the photos, and slight soiling on
