Large Art Deco Hammered Wrought-Iron Mirror with Stylized Rose Decoration

Period: circa 1930

The rectangular mirror, with bevelled glass, is framed on either side by an important openwork fan-shaped decoration, adorned with stylized spiral roses, long stems and hammered leaves.

The contrast between the geometric structure and the stylized floral decoration is particularly elegant.

A superb example in excellent condition, displaying a beautiful original patina (see photos).

Dimensions:

Overall width (including the openwork side elements): 112 cm

Width of the bevelled mirror: 73 cm

Height: 43 cm
