

Pair Of Gold-enameled Bohemian Crystal Bells

2 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Description

A pair of Bohemian violet crystal bells, dating from around 1800. Each piece is adorned with a rich floral design executed in gold enamel, whose delicate motifs contrast elegantly with the depth of the translucent purple glass. The vases are topped with finely crafted gilded metal finials, reflecting the refinement and quality of craftsmanship characteristic of Bohemian glassware from this period. The set captivates with the harmony of its proportions, the intensity of its violet hue, and the delicacy of its gilded decoration, offering a fine example of European glassmaking from the late 18th-early 19th century. Dimensions: 25 cm (height) × 18 cm (diameter)
