Description

This vintage cage-shaped chandelier stands out for its elegance and refinement. It consists of four daggers arranged around the perimeter and a solid crystal ball in the center. The chandelier is adorned with large panels, numerous stars, and rosettes made of cut crystal, and is topped by a cut crystal ball. It provides light through six outer arms, each equipped with an electrical system and an opaline faux candle, in compliance with European standards. It can also be made to operate with American standards upon request using an adapter. Height: 90 cm Diameter: 70 cm
