Description

An elegant majolica porcelain statue, mold-cast and finely decorated in polychrome, depicting a young female figure in a graceful pose, holding a basket of flowers. The figure is characterized by an elegant dress with flowing, billowing lines, decorated in an intense cobalt blue with white details and gold accents. The base, adorned with plant motifs and vibrant polychrome flowers, harmoniously completes the composition, lending it great decorative richness. The quality of the modeling, the attention to detail, and the refined chromatic decoration are hallmarks of the renowned Royal Dux collection, a Bohemian manufacturer celebrated for its highly elegant figurative porcelain. Dating from between 1920 and 1940, this charming sculpture is a refined collector's item, ideal for enhancing a classic
