Description

Oil on canvas measuring 38 cm x 55 cm, plus frame 47 cm x 64 cm signed lower right: A. SIEYES Auguste Sieyes, known as Gu, born in 1914. He worked as a baker before taking up painting, which had always been his passion. A self-taught artist and admirer of Nattero, whom he considered his expert. A painter universally appreciated from Cap Canaille to La Sainte Baume, including Saint Jean de Garguier, this artist from Aubagne and Gemenos left behind numerous depictions of his region. He captured the garrigue with his horse seeking inspiration in this Provence with its ever-changing light. His exhibitions were eagerly anticipated by collectors. Free shipping within the European Union. 150 euros for international shipping.
