Description

Pair of urn-shaped vases in Sèvres porcelain and gilded bronze - 19th century An elegant pair of urn-shaped vases made of Sèvres porcelain, adorned with a luminous turquoise background enhanced by rich gilded decoration. Each vase features a hand-painted central medallion depicting a romantic scene set against a landscape, framed by delicate scrollwork, garlands, and gilded floral motifs. The vases are embellished with a beautiful gilded bronze mount consisting of coiled handles resting on feminine mascarons, an openwork frieze with foliage motifs around the neck, a foliage-decorated base, and a fluted pedestal. The ensemble rests on a molded, richly decorated quadrangular base. These urn-shaped vases are presented without lids. 19th-century French work. In perfect
