Description

Small ladies' writing desk in marquetry, in the Louis XV/Louis XVI Transition style. Cube marquetry on the sides, musical motifs on the front, and a Carrara white marble top with beautiful ornamentation featuring patinated and chiseled gilded bronze. It is in good overall condition, complete, and has never been restored. This writing desk features a large drawer in the upper section, a drop-down panel with a work surface in the center--comprising a niche and four small drawers below--and, in the lower section, a two-door cabinet with a shelf. The drop-down panel is covered in original leather that shows signs of wear but can be replaced if necessary. You can find the matching chest of drawers on our website, featuring the same details and the same
