

Rare Chinese Baluster Vase, First Half Of The 19th Century (daoguang Period), Featuring Chimeras Or

730 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sandstone

Height : 25,5 cm

Description

A curious and rare Chinese stoneware vase carved in high relief, glazed in a milky white that fades to a grayish white toward the bottom, and crackled. Qing Dynasty, Daoguang (or Tao Kuang) period, 1820-1850. Motif of two chimeras or dragons facing each other, on a beaded background. Neck edged with two garlands of pearls, both on the exterior and interior. Incised mark on the reverse, clearly hand-made, and three traces of a punch tool. Excellent condition, with two small chips to note (see the last two photos). Height = 25.5 cm; Diameter at the base = 8.9 cm, at the body = approximately 12 cm, at the neck = 8.5 cm. Weight = 1.308 kg. Extremely careful packaging provided at an additional cost.

Dealer

BANEWITZ

Généraliste

Mobile : 0680112904

3 chemin Pescadou

Serres-Castet 64121