Description

Magnificent Nain wool and silk Persian rug - Rare large size. This Nain Persian rug is remarkable for the fineness of its weave and the elegance of its design. Its deep navy blue field is richly adorned with an ivory central medallion, surrounded by a profusion of floral motifs, palmettes, and delicately drawn scrolling vines. The composition is enhanced by a wide beige border featuring intricate floral details, creating a refined harmony of blue, ivory, beige, and touches of terracotta. Its exceptional size of 5.40 × 3.50 m is particularly rare and highly sought-after. Nain rugs of these proportions are hard to find and serve as magnificent decorative centerpieces for spacious interiors. For reference, the price of a new rug of this quality and size exceeds EUR14,000. Size : 540 x 350

cm. Condition : Very good overall condition.

There is some minor soiling on the fringes in two places, as well as signs of wear consistent with use. Slight soiling is also visible on the beige border, along with two small areas of wool loss within that same border. All these details can be seen in the photographs. A truly beautiful piece, offering the elegance and refinement of a Nain rug in a rare size, offered here at a very attractive price for a pre-owned rug. *Video available upon request
