Description

Jean-Paul GOURDON (Born in 1956). Naturalistic sculpture: Bust of a hare, ears lowered. Terracotta with white glaze. Original signed piece. Height 24 cm. Jean-Paul Gourdon is a naturalistic animal sculptor who was named "Meilleur Ouvrier de France" in 1997. His ceramics, inspired by nature and the 18th century, adorn the finest tables in Europe, particularly those of Alain Ducasse. He continues to work in his studio in the Marmande region on increasingly impressive creations.
