Description

An elegant half-moon sideboard made of mahogany and mahogany veneer, dating from the 19th century. Its half-moon shape is particularly refined and highlights a superb mahogany veneer with warm grain patterns. The front features an upper drawer and two side doors, adorned with gilded bronze handles decorated with lion heads and rings. The central section features a sliding wooden panel door, adding a very elegant decorative and functional detail. The interior offers ample storage space. The piece rests on four tapered legs ending in spurs, characteristic of Louis XVI-style furniture. A high-quality piece, both decorative and functional, that will easily fit into a classic, eclectic, or contemporary interior. Dimensions: 91 cm high x 134 cm wide
