Description

A beautiful pair of Jean-Louis Scherrer ear clips, a French piece from the 1980s, made of gold-plated metal and rhinestones. Rhomboid in shape, each clip features a large black cabochon with a geometric faceted cut at its center, set within a double molded frame of gold-plated metal. The perimeter is entirely outlined with a row of colorless rhinestones, creating an elegant contrast with the deep black of the center stone. The highly graphic design, the pronounced volumes, and the combination of black, gold, and rhinestones are particularly representative of 1980s couture jewelry and the spectacular aesthetic developed by the Jean-Louis Scherrer house during that period. Clip-on setting, allowing it to be worn on unpierced ears. Signed "Jean-Louis Scherrer" on the back. In very good
