Description

For sale: a rare pair of Rodica armchairs, an iconic design by Mario Brunu, manufactured by Comfort Italy, authentic examples of Italian Space Age design from the late 1960s and 1970s. The armchairs are distinguished by their characteristic enveloping shell with organic lines, mounted on a white goblet-shaped base--a defining feature of the Rodica model. Original fabric/velvet upholstery in ochre-cognac, with a charming vintage patina and normal signs of wear consistent with its age. The condition is clearly visible in the photographs.
