Description

Set of Tulip Marble Tables - Eero Saarinen for Knoll Studio
A beautiful set of two Tulip side tables, designed by Eero Saarinen for Knoll Studio. Both tables feature magnificent circular tops made of light-colored natural marble with gray and beige veining, resting on the famous Tulip legs with a glossy white finish. The tables bear an identification plaque reading "Knoll Studio - Eero Saarinen - 1956." A "Made in Italy" label is also present. The Tulip model, created in 1956, is one of the most iconic creations of Eero Saarinen and 20th-century modernist design. Its sculptural silhouette and central tulip-shaped base lend it great elegance. The two tables are offered as a set and can be arranged side by side or separately.
