Description

An elegant Napoleon III-style folding table, dating from the 19th century, made of black-lacquered wood and richly decorated with painted and gilded motifs. The undulating tabletop features a remarkable animal motif composed of deer, felines, and birds, surrounded by foliage and gilded plant motifs. The design is set against an elegant black background, creating a particularly refined contrast. The table rests on a curved tripod base, richly adorned with gilded decorations. Its folding mechanism allows it to be easily folded away when not in use. An original and highly decorative piece, typical of the 19th-century taste for Asian-inspired lacquered furniture. It will easily find its place as a side table, display table, or small coffee table. Dimensions: 75 × 75 × 56
