980 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wool

Width : 134,5 cm

Height : 82 cm

Description

Hand-woven tapestry with large stitches depicting a stylized black lyre surrounded by three doves and trees in shades ranging from green to yellow on a bluish background--a style characteristic of the 1950s, as represented by Jean Lurçat or Jean Picard Le Doux. A beautiful harmony of colors. The tapestry is stretched over a wooden frame, and a dark green molding conceals the outer edge. Shipping available; quote upon request.
