450 EUR

Signature : Cérenne

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

This magnificent vintage fish serving set from the 1950s, crafted by the Cérenne workshop in Vallauris (founded by René Neveux-Cérenne), features a polychrome design of unique, hand-painted fish on a cream background with soft green wavy borders. Set includes: One large oval serving platter, one matching gravy boat, and 12 scalloped fish plates each stamped on the back with the Cérenne Vallauris hallmark. Modernist ceramics typical of the mid-century Côte d'Azur; each hand-painted fish motif is unique in shape and color. Very good condition: 2 tiny chips on the sauce boat.
