

A 14th-century Wooden Sculpture Depicting The "sedes Sapientiae."

5 500 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Description

A beautiful depiction of the Virgin and Child, likely created in the late 13th century or during the first quarter of the 14th century in southern France or northern Spain. The pine wood sculpture still bears traces of its original polychromy. It is in good condition and rests on a recent oak pedestal. Total height: 103 cm. Width: 45 cm. Height of the sculpture: 95 cm.

Dealer

Navarro Antiques

Navarro Antiques

Mobile : 0032(0)477552226

Situé à environ 25 min de Lille (France)

Harelbeke 8530