

Officer's Firefighter Helmet, Model 1821. Louis Philippe.

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Description

Made entirely of brass. The base of the globe is bordered at the front and back by a band decorated with raised moldings on both sides. The movable visor is embossed with two crossed axes linked by a ribbon and framed by laurel branches. The neck guard is encircled by a bent band straddling its outer edge. The crest, featuring wings embossed with ten godrons and a mask adorned with a flaming bomb, is topped with a black horsehair tuft. Brass front plate embossed with a Gallic rooster, marked "DEVOUEMENT," between laurel sprigs and bundles of flags (the tips are missing), and with a ribbon bearing the inscription " Sps Pompiers et Commune non attribuée ". Brass chin straps consisting of two chin guards with rosettes: each chin guard consists of a brass plate stamped with

Dealer

Le grenier du passé présent

Antiquité. Généraliste.

Tel : 0323700142

1 rue du Gué

Pavant 02310

scalloped scales in relief, and a round rosette stamped with gadroons in relief. Plume holder with a square cross-section tapering downward, featuring a clamping screw. Very good overall condition. Helmet fully repolished and oven-baked varnished by Guesnon. Inner liner missing and chin strap laces, visible in the photos.- This item is available for immediate purchase via PayPal; we also accept bank transfers or French checks.- We do not accept sales by phone; transactions must be conducted via email or the Proantic messaging system.- We ensure careful shipping with insurance and tracking. Colissimo shipping for France Europe Union EUR25.