Description

Oil on canvas depicting an aristocrat, French school, 1760-1785. This portrait depicts a young gentleman in a three-quarter view, seated in an armchair whose backrest is visible on the left. He wears a powdered wig tied with a black ribbon, typical of 18th-century aristocratic fashion. His dark suit is accented by a rich gold buttonhole and a pink waistcoat, while a ruffled collar and white lace cuffs underscore the refinement of his social standing. Restored canvas backing.
