Description

A sleek mid-century design by Cappellini, this Italian coffee table embodies minimalist sophistication. The large, low oval top in dark walnut rests on discreet cylindrical metal legs, creating the illusion of floating above the floor. The smooth, uninterrupted surface highlights the natural grain and depth of the wood, while the restrained proportions emphasize balance and modern purity.

Bearing the original Cappellini label, this piece reflects the brand's commitment to refined craftsmanship and timeless form. Its understated presence makes it a versatile centerpiece for contemporary interiors, blending Italian elegance with functional simplicity.
