Description

An interesting religious depiction of "The Visitation of Mary," created in Spain in the late 17th century by a talented painter of devotional art. The copper backing is solid and perfectly consistent with the characteristics of a late 17th-century object. The painting itself is also in excellent condition and shows no signs of repainting or restoration. A certificate of authenticity is included with the sale. We guarantee professional and insured shipping, to be arranged with the customer based on their desired delivery location.
