

18th-century Portable Sundial From Germany, Engraved And Signed - Scn26obj014

700 EUR

Signature : Nhöldem

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Brass

Length : 6 cm

Description

18th-century German portable sundial, engraved and signed - SCN26OBJ014Rare sundial signed "Nhöldem," likely made in Switzerland or southern Germany, 18th century18th-century octagonal equinoctial traveling sundial made of brass, featuring a built-in compass and typical of German production.Inscriptions on the back: The reverse features lists of European cities associated with their latitudes ("Eleva Poli" for polar elevation / latitude), such as Venice (Venedig), Zurich ...In good overall condition; no guarantee that the hand will function (may have been demagnetized...), glass may have been replaced at some point...The ancestor of the mechanical watch!In good overall conditionDimensions approximately 6 x 6 cm

Dealer

French Antiques Normandy

antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 06 75 87 95 30

Mobile : 06 75 87 95 30

Bayeux 14400