Description

Ferdinand Guéry-Colas - Titmouse in the Snow, January 1945 - Handwritten poem by Devaux on the reverse. A very delicate still life by Ferdinand Guéry-Colas, depicting a chickadee in the snow among some winter foliage. An intimate and poetic work, rendered in soft tones, bearing the inscription "January 1945." A remarkable feature: a handwritten poem by the poet Devaux, inspired by the work and dedicated to the artist, appears on the reverse side of the panel, giving this painting a particularly personal character. Painting on wood panel. Dimensions: 25 × 19 cm - 41 × 36 cm with its beautiful antique carved frame.
