Description

A Louis XV-Louis XVI-style trumeau made of painted wood and featuring gilded carved wood ornamentation depicting wide floral garlands and floral spandrels. The upper section is adorned with an oval-shaped painting depicting a romantic scene in the style of famous painters such as Watteau, Fragonard, or Boucher. This mirror is in beautiful original condition; there are minor chips here and there, as visible in the photos, but nothing that would be a deal-breaker. The mirror itself is in good condition; it is original, quite thick, and beveled. Delivery available in France and neighboring countries (details to be arranged). Monthly delivery available in Le Mans.
