Description

Set of five Bohemian glass wine glasses, dating from the 19th century. With an elegant, slender shape, they feature rich polychrome decoration dominated by red, enhanced by geometric motifs and scrollwork finely executed in enamel and gold. The particularly refined decoration combines translucent red panels with elegant gilded and enameled work, complemented by white scroll-shaped ornaments around the rim. The faceted stems, along with the hexagonal bases accented with gilding, emphasize the precious and decorative nature of this set. A fine example of 19th-century Bohemian glassware, both elegant and richly ornamented. Height: 19 cm
