Description

A stunning woven rattan patio set, consisting of two shell chairs and a matching coffee table. A charming set with organic and elegant lines, characteristic of vintage furniture from the 1960s and 1970s. The armchairs feature a generously curved, enveloping shape that is particularly decorative, while the coffee table showcases the same basketwork and weaving technique. There is a magazine rack under the tabletop. The natural rattan with its warm tones contrasts beautifully with the slender turquoise-painted metal legs, adding a graphic and original touch to the set. Ideal for a patio, balcony, or sunroom, but also very appealing in a contemporary interior, a vacation home, or a Mediterranean-style decor. An authentic and timeless set that will immediately add a beautiful presence to any
