Description

A charming liqueur decanter /tantalus from the late 19th century, featuring an elephant with its trunk raised, resting on a beautifully decorated base and covered with a golden cape. On its back is a small barrel--which must have held liqueur--with a small spout. Beautiful enameled crystal. A lovely little decorative object full of charm. Note: minor restoration work on the crystal. Shipping available to Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
