Description

An elegant set of 4 Cattelan Italia designer chairs, made in Italy and upholstered in stunning red leather. Their understated, contemporary design fits just as well in a chic and refined interior as it does in a more design-oriented or vintage decor. Each chair features high-quality craftsmanship, with a comfortable seat and a particularly elegant silhouette. Original Cattelan Italia signature/label--"Made in Italy"--visible under the seat, attesting to their origin. Piuma is a model distinguished by its lightness--both structural and aesthetic--offering a unique and highly functional chair that blends harmoniously with all interior styles. Its ultra-lightweight frame, available with or without armrests, consists of a steel base and a birch plywood seat fully upholstered in leather with decorative topstitching.
