Description

This elegant watercolour by Joan Scott depicts a graceful group of pink lilies set before a tranquil garden landscape with a lake and mature trees beyond. Executed with delicate line work and transparent washes, the composition combines botanical accuracy with a decorative sensibility, allowing the sweeping forms of the lilies to dominate the foreground while the softly rendered landscape provides depth and atmosphere. Artist Joan Scott is the named artist of this signed watercolour. Artist Details Little biographical information has been verified for Joan Scott. This work demonstrates an accomplished botanical approach, combining careful draughtsmanship with transparent watercolour washes and a decorative treatment of colour and composition. The artist's emphasis on
